Prot. N. 2019 RMC-17

DECREE

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

“Likewise, parishes which are too small should be united insofar as the situation demands it and circumstances permit.” St. Paul VI, Apostolic Letter motu proprio, Ecclesiae Sanctae, n. 21, (1), August 6, 1966

Changing demographics have affected the size and wealth of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the vitality of her parishes. This is particularly true in the City of Chicago itself, where the total population has decreased by nearly 20% since 1970, from 3,366,957 to an estimated 2,736,000 today. The archdiocese has many vacant old and underused parochial buildings and far fewer priests to pastor our faith communities.

According to the US Census Bureau, the Archdiocese of Chicago had an estimated total population of 5,914,783 in 2018. The 2018 Annuario Pontificio indicates Chicago had 345 parishes serving a Catholic population of 2,512,000. In 2018 the Archdiocese of Los Angeles had a total population of 11,519,517, with 287 parishes for a Catholic population of 4,362,000, more than twice the number of Catholics per parish than Chicago. In the same year the Archdiocese of New York had 2,656,987 Catholics in 294 parishes, also a much larger parishioners per parish number than in Chicago. A good number of our parishes were founded in the first half of the last century or earlier. Many were established for national, linguistic, or ethnic groups that no longer live in the archdiocese or in the neighborhoods where they once flourished.

Too many of our parishes have been unable to support themselves and are receiving financial subsidies from the archdiocese. Between fiscal year 2012 and fiscal year 2018 these subsidies amounted to $144,373,461.00, including $38,171,840.00 to 106 parishes, and $106,201,621.00 to 83 Catholic schools. More than $25,000,000.00 was given in the last two fiscal years alone. None of this money will be recovered by the archdiocese. The Archdiocese of Chicago cannot continue this level of financial support for parishes and Catholic schools. Our hope is that our parishes will become more vital, that is, active centers of Christian discipleship, evangelical mission, scholarship, and charitable outreach. To achieve this hope, the parishes must be able to support themselves when possible.

More than three years ago, inspired by the experience of St. Francis of Assisi before the cross of the ruined church of San Damiano, and by the Holy Father's dream of “a missionary option ... capable of transforming everything” (Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, n. 27, November 24, 2013), I announced the inauguration of Renew My Church (RMC), a multi-year, intentional process aimed at obtaining and preserving the vitality of our parishes. It is my intention that every parish of the Archdiocese of Chicago join with some of its neighbors and plan together for the future.

Careful planning will create a menu of possible options for future vitality. We will also identify parishes likely to be restructured through pastoral coordination, unions, and other significant alterations. This decree arises out of the work of four parishes, all located within a territory of approximately five square miles in the Archer Midway West Grouping. The decree is applicable to three parishes in the Grouping: St. Camillus Parish (established 1921 for Polish Speaking Catholics), 5426 South Lockwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60638-2916); St. Jane de Chantal Parish (established 1954), 5252 South Austin Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60638-1421; and Our Lady of the Snows Parish (established 1959), 4810 South Leamington Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60638-2127.

In 2018 the pastoral leadership and lay representatives from the above-mentioned parishes met in the RMC grouping to consider their future. The Grouping Team presented a Community Engagement and Planning Feedback Summary dated December 10, 2018, to the Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, a group of lay and ordained representatives from across the archdiocese (see Submission of December 10, 2018, attached to this Decree).

The recommendation of the Commission was conveyed to the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Chicago on January 15, 2019, at Our Lady of Hope Parish, Rosemont, Illinois. The recommendations pertaining to this decree provided for the union of St. Camillus Parish and St. Jane de Chantal Parish, establishing a new parish, taking some territory from the adjacent Our Lady of the Snows Parish. The union would be effective from July 1, 2019. The union of the parishes is supported by the data and arguments attached to this decree. Significant is that neither of the two parishes meets the important recommended minimum annual operating income of $750,000.00. Moreover, Sunday Mass attendance at St. Camillus Parish is 682, considerably less than the 800 minimum our studies believe necessary for a viable parish in this archdiocese.

THEREFORE, know that I, Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, according to the norms of canons 50-51, canon 127 §§1 & 3, canon 166, and canon 515 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, having before me the recommendations of the Grouping Team and those of the Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, convened the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Chicago on January 15, 2019, at Our Lady of Hope Parish, Rosemont, Illinois. There, I heard the Presbyteral Council, noted the Council's deliberations, and witnessed the Council's own vote on the matter. Thereafter, having invoked the Holy Spirit, decree the following:

1. Effective July 1, 2019, St. Camillus Parish and St. Jane de Chantal Parish on the South Side of the City of Chicago will be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form a single new juridic person, a territorial parish known, ad interim, as SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish;

2. The ministries of the two extinguished parishes will be subsumed into the work of the newly established SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish;

3. Each and all the parishioners of the two parishes to be extinguished will be fully and equally parishioners of the new SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish;

4. The territory of the new SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish will be the territory of the extinguished St. Jane de Chantal Parish to which will be added territory taken from Our Lady of the Snows Parish, namely the territory located within these boundaries:

Start at Sanitary Drainage and Ship Canal and extension of Melvina Avenue,
East on south side of Drainage and Ship Canal to Central Avenue,
South on west side of Central Avenue to Archer Avenue,
East on south side of Archer Avenue to Laramie Avenue,
South on west side of Laramie Avenue to 55th Street,
West on north side of 55th Street to Central Avenue,
South on west side of Central Avenue to 56th Street,
West on north side of 56th Street to Melvina Avenue,
North on Melvina Avenue and extension of Melvina to Drainage and Ship Canal.

5. The churches of the extinguished St. Camillus Parish and of the extinguished St. Jane de Chantal Parish remain parochial churches of the new SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish, retaining their own titles;

6. Subject to the intention of founders and donors, and with due regard for any acquired rights, the goods and patrimonial rights of the extinguished St. Camillus Parish and the extinguished St. Jane de Chantal Parish, together with any obligations with which they may be burdened, will become those of the newly established SS. Camillus and Jane de Chantal Parish (see canon 121);

7. The documents given to the Presbyteral Council on this matter, together with the minutes of the Council meeting of January 15, 2019, will be attached to this decree;

8. In due course, the sacramental records and other materials relevant to historical research concerning the extinguished St. Camillus Parish and the extinguished St. Jane de Chantal Parish will be commended to the Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Archives and Records Center of the Archdiocese of Chicago for safe keeping and suitable access; and
