Prot. N. 2022 RMC-19

DECREE

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

Changing demographics have affected the size and wealth of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the vitality of her parishes. This is particularly true in the City of Chicago itself, where the total population fell by nearly 21% since 1970, from 3,366,957 to an estimated 2,693,976 in 2020. During the last decade, the total population of the Archdiocese of Chicago (Cook and Lake Counties in Illinois) declined by less than 2%, from 5,903,190 in 2010 to an estimated 5,821,933 in 2020. However, over the same ten-year period, the Catholic population of the Archdiocese of Chicago declined by nearly 7% (159,000), from 2,338,000 to 2,179,000.

A good number of our parishes were founded more than 100 years ago, in the 19th Century or the first half of the 20th Century. Many were established for national, linguistic, or ethnic groups that no longer reside in the archdiocese or in the neighborhoods where they once flourished. Today, many are unable or struggling to support themselves. Consequently, from Fiscal Year 2012 through Fiscal Year 2021, the Archdiocese of Chicago provided $187,818,176.00 in support to parishes and Catholic schools: $49,452,924.00 to 119 parishes and $138,365,252.00 to 99 Catholic schools. This includes $10,708,494.00 during Fiscal Year 2021 alone: $3,120,340.00 to parishes and $7,588,154.00 to Catholic schools, mostly parochial schools. Completely due to the generosity of the faithful people of the archdiocese and other gracious donors, these subsidies cannot continue at this high level. Our mission is to convert our parishes, helping them to become more vital, that is, active centers of Christian discipleship, evangelical mission, scholarship, and charitable outreach. For this mission, the parishes need a growing and stable membership and the financial means to support themselves.

More than six years ago, inspired by the experience of St. Francis of Assisi before the cross of the ruined church of San Damiano and the Holy Father's dream of "a missionary option ... capable of transforming everything" (Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, n. 27, November 24, 2013), and with wide and continuing consultation among the clergy and lay faithful of the Archdiocese of Chicago, particularly in the Presbyteral Council, we embarked on the inauguration of Renew My Church (RMC). This is our multi-year process aimed at converting our parishes for mission. It is my intention that every parish join with some of its neighbors (groupings) to plan the future. Careful planning will create a menu of possibilities. We are identifying parishes to be reconfigured through pastoral coordination with neighboring parishes, divisions, unions, and other structural and governance changes.

This decree concerns two adjacent parishes located within approximately four-square miles in the Southwest suburban municipalities of Posen and Midlothian in Cook County, Illinois: St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish (established 1894, 1902), 14414 South McKinley Avenue, Posen, Illinois 60469-1248, and St. Christopher Parish (established 1922), 4130 147th Street, Midlothian, Illinois 60445-2726. The churches of these two parishes are approximately two and one-half miles apart, a drive of seven minutes.

In Fiscal Year 2020 the pre-COVID-19 average Sunday Mass attendance at St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish was 457 (57% Spanish and 43% English), a 25% decline from the 610 attending in Fiscal Year 2000. The same year, the average Sunday attendance at St. Christopher Parish was 768, a 53% decline from the 1,642 attending in Fiscal Year 2000.

In Fiscal Year 2021, St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish had an operating deficit of $49,227.00, savings of $11,080.00 on deposit, and total church debt of $844,556.00. The same year St. Christopher Parish had an operating surplus of $4,550.00, savings of $127,335.00 on deposit, and no church debt. In February 2021, St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish had capital needs of $1,908,600.00, and St. Christopher Parish had capital needs of $2,758,025.00 in August 2021.

During Fiscal Year 2019, liturgical life outside Sunday Mass at St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish included four funerals, three marriages, and 35 Baptisms. In the same period St. Christopher Parish had 63 funerals, 13 marriages, and 80 Baptisms. The combined totals of the two parishes are 67 funerals, 16 marriages, and 115 Baptisms.

Following consultations last year with lay and clergy members of the parishes, including input from parishioners at large, a report was submitted to the Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, a group of lay and clergy representatives from across the Archdiocese of Chicago. Recently, the Renew My Church Executive Committee submitted the Commission's recommendation to the pastoral leadership of the archdiocese. Due to the steady decline in the number of faithful at both parishes, the continuing decline in the number of priests able to serve as pastors, the continuing operating deficits at St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish, and the large capital needs in both parishes, the Church in this area of the Archdiocese of Chicago will struggle financially and administratively to sustain two parishes. If the care of souls, evangelization, and discipleship are to be the focus of future mission, the consolidation and conservation of resources within one new parish is the recommended course of action.

THEREFORE, know that I, Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, according to the norms of canon 50, canon 121, canon 127 §§1, 2, 2°, & 3, and canon 515 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, have before me a proposal that the above-mentioned St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish, Posen, and St. Christopher Parish, Midlothian, be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form one new juridic person, a territorial parish named, ad interim, St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish, located within the combined territorial boundaries of the two parishes. St. Christopher Church is to be designated the parish church. Know also, I convened the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Chicago electronically via the internet on January 18, 2022. Then, after hearing the Presbyteral Council and receiving its vote of 29 for and four against the proposal, I accepted the Presbyteral Council's advice and now, invoking the Holy Spirit,

I decree the following:

The new parish is to be called, ad interim, St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish;

2. The ministries of the two extinguished parishes will become those of the new St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish;

4. The territory of the new St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish will be the combined territories of the extinguished St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish and the extinguished St. Christopher Parish, as depicted and described on the map and in the document attached to this decree;

5. Subject to the intention of founders and donors, and with due regard for any acquired rights, the goods and patrimonial rights of the two extinguished parishes, together with any obligations with which they may be burdened, will be those of the new St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish (canon 121);

6. The churches of the extinguished St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish and the extinguished St. Christopher Parish will be churches of the new St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr and St. Christopher Parish, retaining their own titles. St. Christopher Church shall be designated the parish church of the new parish;

7. The data submitted to the Presbyteral Council on this matter, together with the minutes of the Council meeting of January 18, 2022, are to be attached to this decree and will become available upon request to those eligible to receive them;

9. Notification of this decree shall be given immediately through the official website of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The decree shall be conveyed to the pastors of St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr Parish and St. Christopher Parish. As soon as possible, the pastors shall inform
