Prot. N. 2022 RMC-14

DECREE

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

Changing demographics have affected the size and wealth of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the vitality of her parishes. This is particularly true in the City of Chicago itself, where the total population fell by nearly 20% since 1970, from 3,366,957 to an estimated 2,693,976 in 2020. Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, an estimated additional 100,000 individuals have left the Chicago area. During the last decade, the total population of the Archdiocese of Chicago (Cook and Lake Counties in Illinois) declined by less than 2% (81,257) from 5,903,190 in 2010 to an estimated 5,821,933 in 2020. However, over the same ten-year period, the Catholic population of the Archdiocese of Chicago declined by nearly 7% (159,000), from 2,338,000 to 2,179,000.

A good number of our parishes were founded more than 100 years ago, in the 19th Century or the first half of the 20th Century. Many were established for national, linguistic, or ethnic groups that no longer reside in the archdiocese or in the neighborhoods where they once flourished. Today, many are unable or struggling to support themselves. Consequently, from Fiscal Year 2012 through Fiscal Year 2021, the Archdiocese of Chicago provided $187,818,176.00 in support to parishes and Catholic schools: $49,452,924.00 to 119 parishes and $138,365,252.00 to 99 Catholic schools. This includes $10,708,494.00 during Fiscal Year 2021 alone: $3,120,340.00 to parishes and $7,588,154.00 to Catholic schools, mostly parochial schools. Completely due to the generosity of the faithful people of the archdiocese and other gracious donors, these subsidies cannot continue at this high level. Our mission is to convert our parishes, helping them to become more vital, that is, active centers of Christian discipleship, evangelical mission, scholarship, and charitable outreach. For this mission, the parishes need a growing and stable membership and the financial means to support themselves.

More than six years ago, inspired by the experience of St. Francis of Assisi before the cross of the ruined church of San Damiano and the Holy Father's dream of "a missionary option ... capable of transforming everything" (Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, n. 27, November 24, 2013), and with wide and continuing consultation among the clergy and lay faithful of the Archdiocese of Chicago, particularly in the Presbyteral Council, we embarked on the inauguration of Renew My Church (RMC). This is our multi-year process aimed at converting our parishes for mission. It is my intention that every parish join with some of its neighbors (groupings) to plan the future. Careful planning will create a menu of possibilities. We are identifying parishes to be reconfigured through pastoral coordination with neighboring parishes, divisions, unions, and other structural and governance changes.

This decree concerns three neighboring parishes located within approximately 27 square miles of the far south suburban municipalities of Flossmoor, Olympia Fields, Matteson, Richton

Park, and Park Forest: St. Irenaeus Parish (established 1949), 78 Cherry Street, Park Forest, Illinois 60466-2010; Infant Jesus of Prague Parish (established 1954), 1131 Douglas Avenue, Flossmoor, Illinois 60422-1460; and St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish (established 1959), 4101 Saint Lawrence Avenue, Matteson, Illinois 60443-2347. The churches of the three parishes are between 3.5 and 5.2 miles apart, a drive of between seven and 12 minutes.

In Fiscal Year 2020 the pre-COVID-19 average Sunday Mass attendance at St. Irenaeus Parish was 438, a 30% decline from the 628 attending in Fiscal Year 2000. The same year, the average Sunday attendance at Infant Jesus of Prague Parish was 583 a 68% decline from the 1,837 attending in Fiscal Year 2000. At St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish, the Fiscal Year 2020 average Sunday attendance was 266, an 83% decline from 1,559 in Fiscal Year 2000.

In Fiscal Years 2019 to 2021, St. Irenaeus Parish had operating deficits of $7,466.00, $7,287.00, and $42,512.00 respectively. In the same years, St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish had operating deficits of $92,635.00, $165,117.00, and $177,883.00 respectively. Infant Jesus of Prague Parish had an operating deficit of $76,386.00 in Fiscal Year 2019 and operating surpluses of $88,062.00 and $120,383.00 in Fiscal Year 2020 and Fiscal Year 2021 respectively.

On October 31, 2021, St. Irenaeus Parish had savings of $101,704.00 on deposit, and $67,044.00 in total church debt. On the same date Infant Jesus of Prague Parish had savings of $928,461.00 on deposit and no church debt, while St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish had savings of $88,047.00 on deposit and total church debt of $1,482,442.00 (significantly related to school operations but reflected on the church balance sheet).

During Fiscal Year 2019, liturgical life outside Sunday Mass at St. Irenaeus Parish included 17 funerals, one marriage, and four Baptisms. In the same period, Infant Jesus of Prague Parish had 33 funerals, 7 marriages, and eight Baptisms, while at St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish there were 12 funerals, one marriage, and eight Baptisms. The Fiscal Year 2019 combined totals for the three parishes are 62 funerals, nine marriages, and 20 Baptisms, figures indicative of aging populations.

Following consultations last year with lay and clergy members of the parishes, including input from parishioners at large, a report was submitted to the Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, a group of lay and clergy representatives from across the Archdiocese of Chicago. Recently, the Renew My Church Executive Committee submitted the Commission's recommendation to the pastoral leadership of the archdiocese. Due to the significant 20-year decline in the number of faithful at all three parishes, the continuing decline in the number of priests able to serve as pastors, significant church/school debt at St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish, and recent annual operating deficits, the Church in this area of the Archdiocese of Chicago will struggle financially and administratively to sustain two or three parishes. If the care of souls, evangelization, and discipleship are to be the focus of future mission, the consolidation and conservation of resources within one new parish is the recommended course of action.

THEREFORE, know that I, Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, according to the norms of canon 50, canon 121, canon 127 §§1, 2,2°, & 3, and canon 515 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, have before me a proposal that the above-mentioned St. Irenaeus Parish, Infant Jesus of Prague Parish, and St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish, be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form one new juridic person, a territorial parish named, ad interim, Infant Jesus of Prague and SS. Irenaeus and Lawrence O'Toole Parish, located within the combined territories of the three parishes. Infant Jesus of Prague Church is to be designated the parish church. Know also, I convened the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Chicago electronically via the internet on January 17, 2022. Then, after hearing the Presbyteral Council and receiving its vote of 32 for and two against the proposal, I accepted the Presbyteral Council's advice and now, invoking the Holy Spirit,

I decree the following:

Effective July 1, 2022, the above-mentioned St. Irenaeus Parish, Infant Jesus of Prague Parish, and St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish shall be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form one new juridic person, a territorial parish within the combined territories of the three parishes. 5. Subject to the intention of founders and donors, and with due regard for any acquired rights, the goods and patrimonial rights of the three extinguished parishes, together with any obligations with which they may be burdened, will be those of the new Infant Jesus of Prague and SS. Irenaeus and Lawrence O'Toole Parish (canon 121);
6. The churches of the extinguished St. Irenaeus Parish, the extinguished Infant Jesus of Prague Parish, and the extinguished St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish will be churches of the new Infant Jesus of Prague and SS. Irenaeus and Lawrence O'Toole Parish, retaining their own titles. Infant Jesus of Prague Church shall be designated the parish church of the new parish;
7. The data submitted to the Presbyteral Council on this matter, together with the minutes of the Council meeting of January 17, 2022, are to be attached to this decree and will become available upon request to those eligible to receive them;
